“Building your Business and Relationships Across Borders”

Breakfast Reception Featuring Former U.S. Ambassador to the Czech Republic Richard Graber

As the former Ambassador to the Czech Republic, Richard W. Graber had gone to great lengths to build strong relationships with his host country -- including parachuting with the Czech Special Forces. Now back with Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren, the law firm he spent 25 years with and served as President and CEO prior to accepting his ambassadorship, Rick brings that same commitment to his clients. Please join us to hear how Rick helps U.S. and foreign businesses prosper and grow through his many relationships and experiences.
