

PIANO RECITAL

Pianist Radoslav Kvapil will present a solo piano recital of music by Czech and other composers on Saturday, November 1, 2008 at 3:00 PM in St. Wenceslaus Church, Spillville, Iowa. Throughout his distinguished career, Mr. Kvapil has been praised by music critics as an “unrivalled master”, a “magician at the keyboard.” In 1999, Mr. Kvapil founded the International Dvořák Society (IDS), which has organized a number of concert series, the American Spring Festival. Running since 2006, it is the largest project of Czech-American cultural cooperation currently taking place in the Czech Republic.

Admission: Adults $10.00 at the door, $5 students, up to four K-12 children free with paid adult

PROGRAMME

Antonín Dvořák: Poetic Tone Pictures op.85

(On the Road at Night, Toying, At the Old Castle, Spring Song, Peasant's Ballad, Furiant,

Bedřich Smetana: Czech Dances

( Little Onion, Stomp Dance, The Lancer, Stepping Round, Hopping Dance)

Claude Debussy: Pour piano (Preludium, Sarabanda, Toccata)

Frederyk Chopin :

Balada g-moll op.23, Polonéza As-dur op.53, Mazurka cis-moll op.30 č. 4, Scherzo cis-moll op.39

To learn more about Radoslav go to www.google.com and enter Radoslav Kvapil.

This concert is made possible through the efforts of the Czech Heritage Partnership, a 501 ( c ) (3) not-for-profit Iowa Corporation, in cooperation with St. Wenceslaus Parish and by supporters like you. All expressions of support for this event and future projects are appreciated. Net proceeds are applied to historic preservation and heritage projects by the Czech Heritage Partnership